The Honorable William Webster
Director of Central Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Judge Webster:

On behalf of the State Department Senior Seminar, I want to thank your Agency for hosting a day-long session of the Seminar at Langley on March 21. The agenda, which was designed by a CIA member of our group, included fine presentations by the following Agency officers:

Richard Kerr, Deputy Director of Intelligence
[redacted], Executive Officer, Imagery

Exploitation Division, NPIC

[redacted] Deputy Director of Technical Services

John Helgerson, Director of Congressional Affairs

[redacted]
Directorate of Operations.

We also wish to extend our appreciation to Bill Baker, who hosted a luncheon for the Seminar in your dining room, and gave an overview of CIA's relationship with the public, and [redacted] of the Center for the Study of Intelligence, who helped to coordinate and plan all of our activities.

In their critiques of the day at CIA, Seminar Members used phrases like "absolutely first-rate," "simply excellent," and "couldn't have been improved upon" to describe their impressions. Please pass along to the above-named individuals our sincere thanks and praise for a job well done.

Sincerely,

Ambassador James R. Bullington
Dean
